

*Advancing Chicanos/Hispanics
& Native Americans in Science*

SACNAS fact sheet, page1

2020 Fact Sheet

SACNAS – Society for Advancement of Chicanos/Hispanics and Native Americans in Science

Mission: SACNAS is an inclusive organization dedicated to fostering the success of Chicanos/Hispanics and Native Americans, from college students to professionals, in attaining advanced degrees, careers, and positions of leadership in STEM.

Scale:

- SACNAS is the largest multicultural and multidisciplinary STEM diversity organization in the country.
- We have the largest diversity in STEM conference, the largest multicultural and multidisciplinary national student chapter network, and the largest cohort of diverse emerging STEM leaders.

Official numbers:

Serves a growing community of over 27,000 including:

- 8,200+ members
- 115 student and professional chapters nationwide
- Annual conference with 5,100+ attendees
- Since 2009, trained 317 diverse emerging STEM leaders through SACNAS Leadership Institutes

Our key messages:

- SACNAS is a leader in the national movement to build a critical mass of STEM leaders from underrepresented communities.
- SACNAS is changing the face of science to include the unique contributions and perspectives of Chicanos/Hispanics and Native Americans.
- SACNAS works to create a new STEM environment where minority scientists don't feel they have to leave their cultures at the lab door. Rather, SACNAS helps diverse scientists merge and integrate their diverse identities, creating space to include the unique contributions and perspectives of all.

Goals:

- Increase the number of Chicanos/Hispanics and Native Americans with advanced degrees in science and the motivation to be leaders
- Increase the number of Chicanos/Hispanics and Native Americans in science research, leadership, and teaching careers at all levels

*Advancing Chicanos/Hispanics
& Native Americans in Science*

SACNAS fact sheet, page2

- Increase governmental commitment to advancing Chicanos/Hispanics and Native Americans in STEM, resulting in increased resources, elimination of barriers, and greater equity

Organizational Culture:

- Inclusive of ethnicities, cultures, gender, gender identity/expression, sexual orientation, and scientific disciplines
- Focused on achieving a real impact through its purpose and mission
- Committed to standards of excellence in science and education
- Devoted to full engagement of its members in the organization's work
- Fully mindful of the importance of students' K-12 experience and supportive of K-12 STEM education from a policy perspective, but does not engage programmatically in K-12 education

Organizational Structure

- SACNAS is a nonprofit corporation with 501 c 3 tax-exempt status
- The organization's first staffed office was on the campus of the University of California Santa Cruz, and the national home office to this day remains in Santa Cruz, California, with 15 - 20 staff
- Since 2010, SACNAS has also had an office in Washington, D.C.
- SACNAS is governed by a 15-member national board of directors; of the 15 board members, 13 are professional scientists—all with advanced degrees, all of them from communities of color; there are two student board members, also persons of color.

Contact

Daniela Bernal, Communications & Membership Manager

daniela@sacnas.org

831-459-0170, ext. 242

Social media

Facebook – facebook.com/SACNAS/

Twitter – twitter.com/sacnas

Instagram – instagram.com/sacnas/

LinkedIn – linkedin.com/company/sacnas

Medium – medium.com/stem-and-culture-chronicle

YouTube – youtube.com/SACNASvideo

Snapchat – snapchat.com/add/sacnas

sacnas.org

Key hashtags

#TrueDiversity

#2020SACNAS